

International Council of Psychology Educators Incorporated

First call for abstracts for the 2023 ICOPE CONFERENCE
"Tuning Psychology Education to Serve Humanity and Habitat"

Will be held in
Mexicali, Mexico, from October 27-28, 2023
at Universidad Autónoma de Baja California (UABC)

ICOPE is the premier international conference for Psychology educators in Universities, Colleges and High Schools to present their research (especially evidenced-based educational innovations) and to discover new and interesting concepts in Psychology learning and teaching. The ICOPE Organizing Committee liaises with national and international societies in developing its program for the conference.

The program will consist of posters and talks (some grouped in symposia), presented live to an audience and shared online via Zoom, or presented exclusively online via Zoom.

As well as the conference theme, suggested topics include:

- Rethinking/revolutionizing undergraduate psychology education.
- International collaborations in psychology educations: Challenges and opportunities.
- Utilizing technology to optimize and progress psychology education.
- Psychology education and social justice.
- Reconsidering roles for academics/faculty.
- Purpose of the research PhD.
- Accreditation and credentialing of degree programs.
- Work-integrated learning and employability for graduates.
- Developing students' professional identity.
- Competency-based assessment.
- Culture and diversity.
- and other relevant topics.
- International opportunities (for students, and for mobility).

Important dates:
Deadline for abstracts - 30 April, 2023.
Notification of acceptance – 31 May 2023.
Registrations open – 31 May 2023.

All submissions must be in English or Spanish and submitted to the conference team via this link:
